April 19—Canton Washington, No. 1, drill and social.

Last Monday evening, Naomi Rebekah Lodge, No. 1, held an interesting and well attended session. The degree was conferred upon several candidates, and remarks were made by several visiting members.

Ruth Rebekah Lodge, No. 2, also held an interesting session on Monday evening. The attendance was large, there being present several members of the Rebekah branch of the order from other jurisdictions. Under the directorship of Past Capt. R. A. Humphrey, of Canton Washington, No. 1, the newly organized degree staff conferred the Rebekah degree upon three candidates, in a very creditable manner.

Beacon Lodge, No. 15, held a very encouraging session last Monday evening. The lodge received another application for membership, with all the formalities of two more Monday evening. Past Grand Bell, who has been ill for several weeks, was present, as was also Grand Representative E. W. Bradford, who had just returned from a business trip to the flooded district of the Middle West. He gave a very graphic description of the conditions in that section of the country, and the great need of help for the members of the order, many of whom lost everything in the flood.

On Saturday evening, April 13, the Noble Grand Association assembled in the dining-room of Odd Fellows Hall, Seventh Street Northwest. The attendance of the members was not as large as the grand master, Edgar D. Thompson, who presided at the meeting, desired, but much of the time was devoted to the discussion of the flood, and the association decided to hold its regular monthly session on the second Saturday of each month, commencing with Saturday, April 12, at 7:30 p. m. The grand master requests the attendance of all of the noble and vice grand on these evenings, as matters of interest to all subordinate lodges will be discussed, and plans formulated for the betterment of all of the lodges during the balance of this year.

Last Tuesday evening Fred D. Stuart, Grandmaster, presided at a well attended session. The royal purple degree was conferred upon three candidates in the excellent manner that encampment can confer that degree. Several members of other jurisdictions, located both in this and other jurisdictions, were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent, listening to interesting talks. The indications are that this encampment will have all the degree work it can attend to during the remainder of the term.

Chief Patriarch H. L. Anderson, who is an indefatigable worker in all branches of the order.

Last Friday evening Grand Master Edgar D. Thompson and his officers paid Miriam Rebekah Lodge, No. 6, the usual yearly grand visit. The meeting was very largely attended, there being present a large delegation from each of the other five Rebekah Lodges. The lodge admitted a member by card, and the lodge records showed that in less than a year the lodge had increased its membership from thirty-one to seventy members, also that the financial condition of the lodge was steadily increasing. At the close of the visit, the officers of the lodge, the entertainment committee in charge of the visit Grand Mary E. Murray took charge of the remainder of the exercises, and the following programme was presented and thoroughly enjoyed by all: Piano solo, by Brother J. B. Wilson; recitation, by Miss Grace Taylor; solo, by Miss E. Pearl Grisham; solo, by Brother C. Edgar Webb; talk and reading by Brother J. Clapp, grand secretary; solo, by Brother George C. H. Brown; recitation, by Miss Mary W. Bauman, noble grand; solo by Irving R. Schwiner, grand conductor; piano duet by Miss Elsie Allen and Miss Lorraine Sauer, Durland; a visit from the Rebekah branch of the order from other jurisdictions. Under the directorship of Past Capt. R. A. Humphrey, of Canton Washington, No. 1, the newly organized degree staff conferred the Rebekah degree upon three candidates, in a very creditable manner.

The committee on arranging for the celebration of the ninety-fourth anniversary of the order, met Thursday evening at the home of the grand master, Edgar D. Thompson, and arranged for completing the arrangements for that event. The grand secretary, C. A. Keller, having signified his intention to honor this jurisdiction by his presence with us on that occasion, it was decided to hold the exercises in the auditorium of Odd Fellows Hall, Saturday evening, May 10, 1913, instead of Saturday evening, April 20, the date of the visit from the Rebekah branch of the order from other jurisdictions. Other interesting features are being arranged for the interest of the membership on that occasion, and it is hoped that the members will refrain from making any other engagements for that date, but will all attend the exercises and give the grand sir a most hearty welcome.

Past Grand Master John H. Wood, who for many years, until he transferred his membership to Federal City Lodge, No. 20, was one of the most active members of the order, and a most devoted worker for the betterment of all of the lodges during the balance of this year. Much routine business was transacted, and a committee was appointed to arrange a programme for the entertainment of the grand master, his officers and members of other jurisdictions, who will pay a courtesy visit tomorrow evening. A cordial invitation is extended to the members of all lodges to join with the grand lodge on that occasion.

Past Chief Patriarch August Kruse reported that Margaret Encampment, No. 1, held an interesting and well attended session Friday evening, April 4. Application for membership was received, and plans were made for the celebration of the ninety-fourth anniversary of the order, to be held Saturday evening, May 10, 1913, in the auditorium of Odd Fellows Hall.
